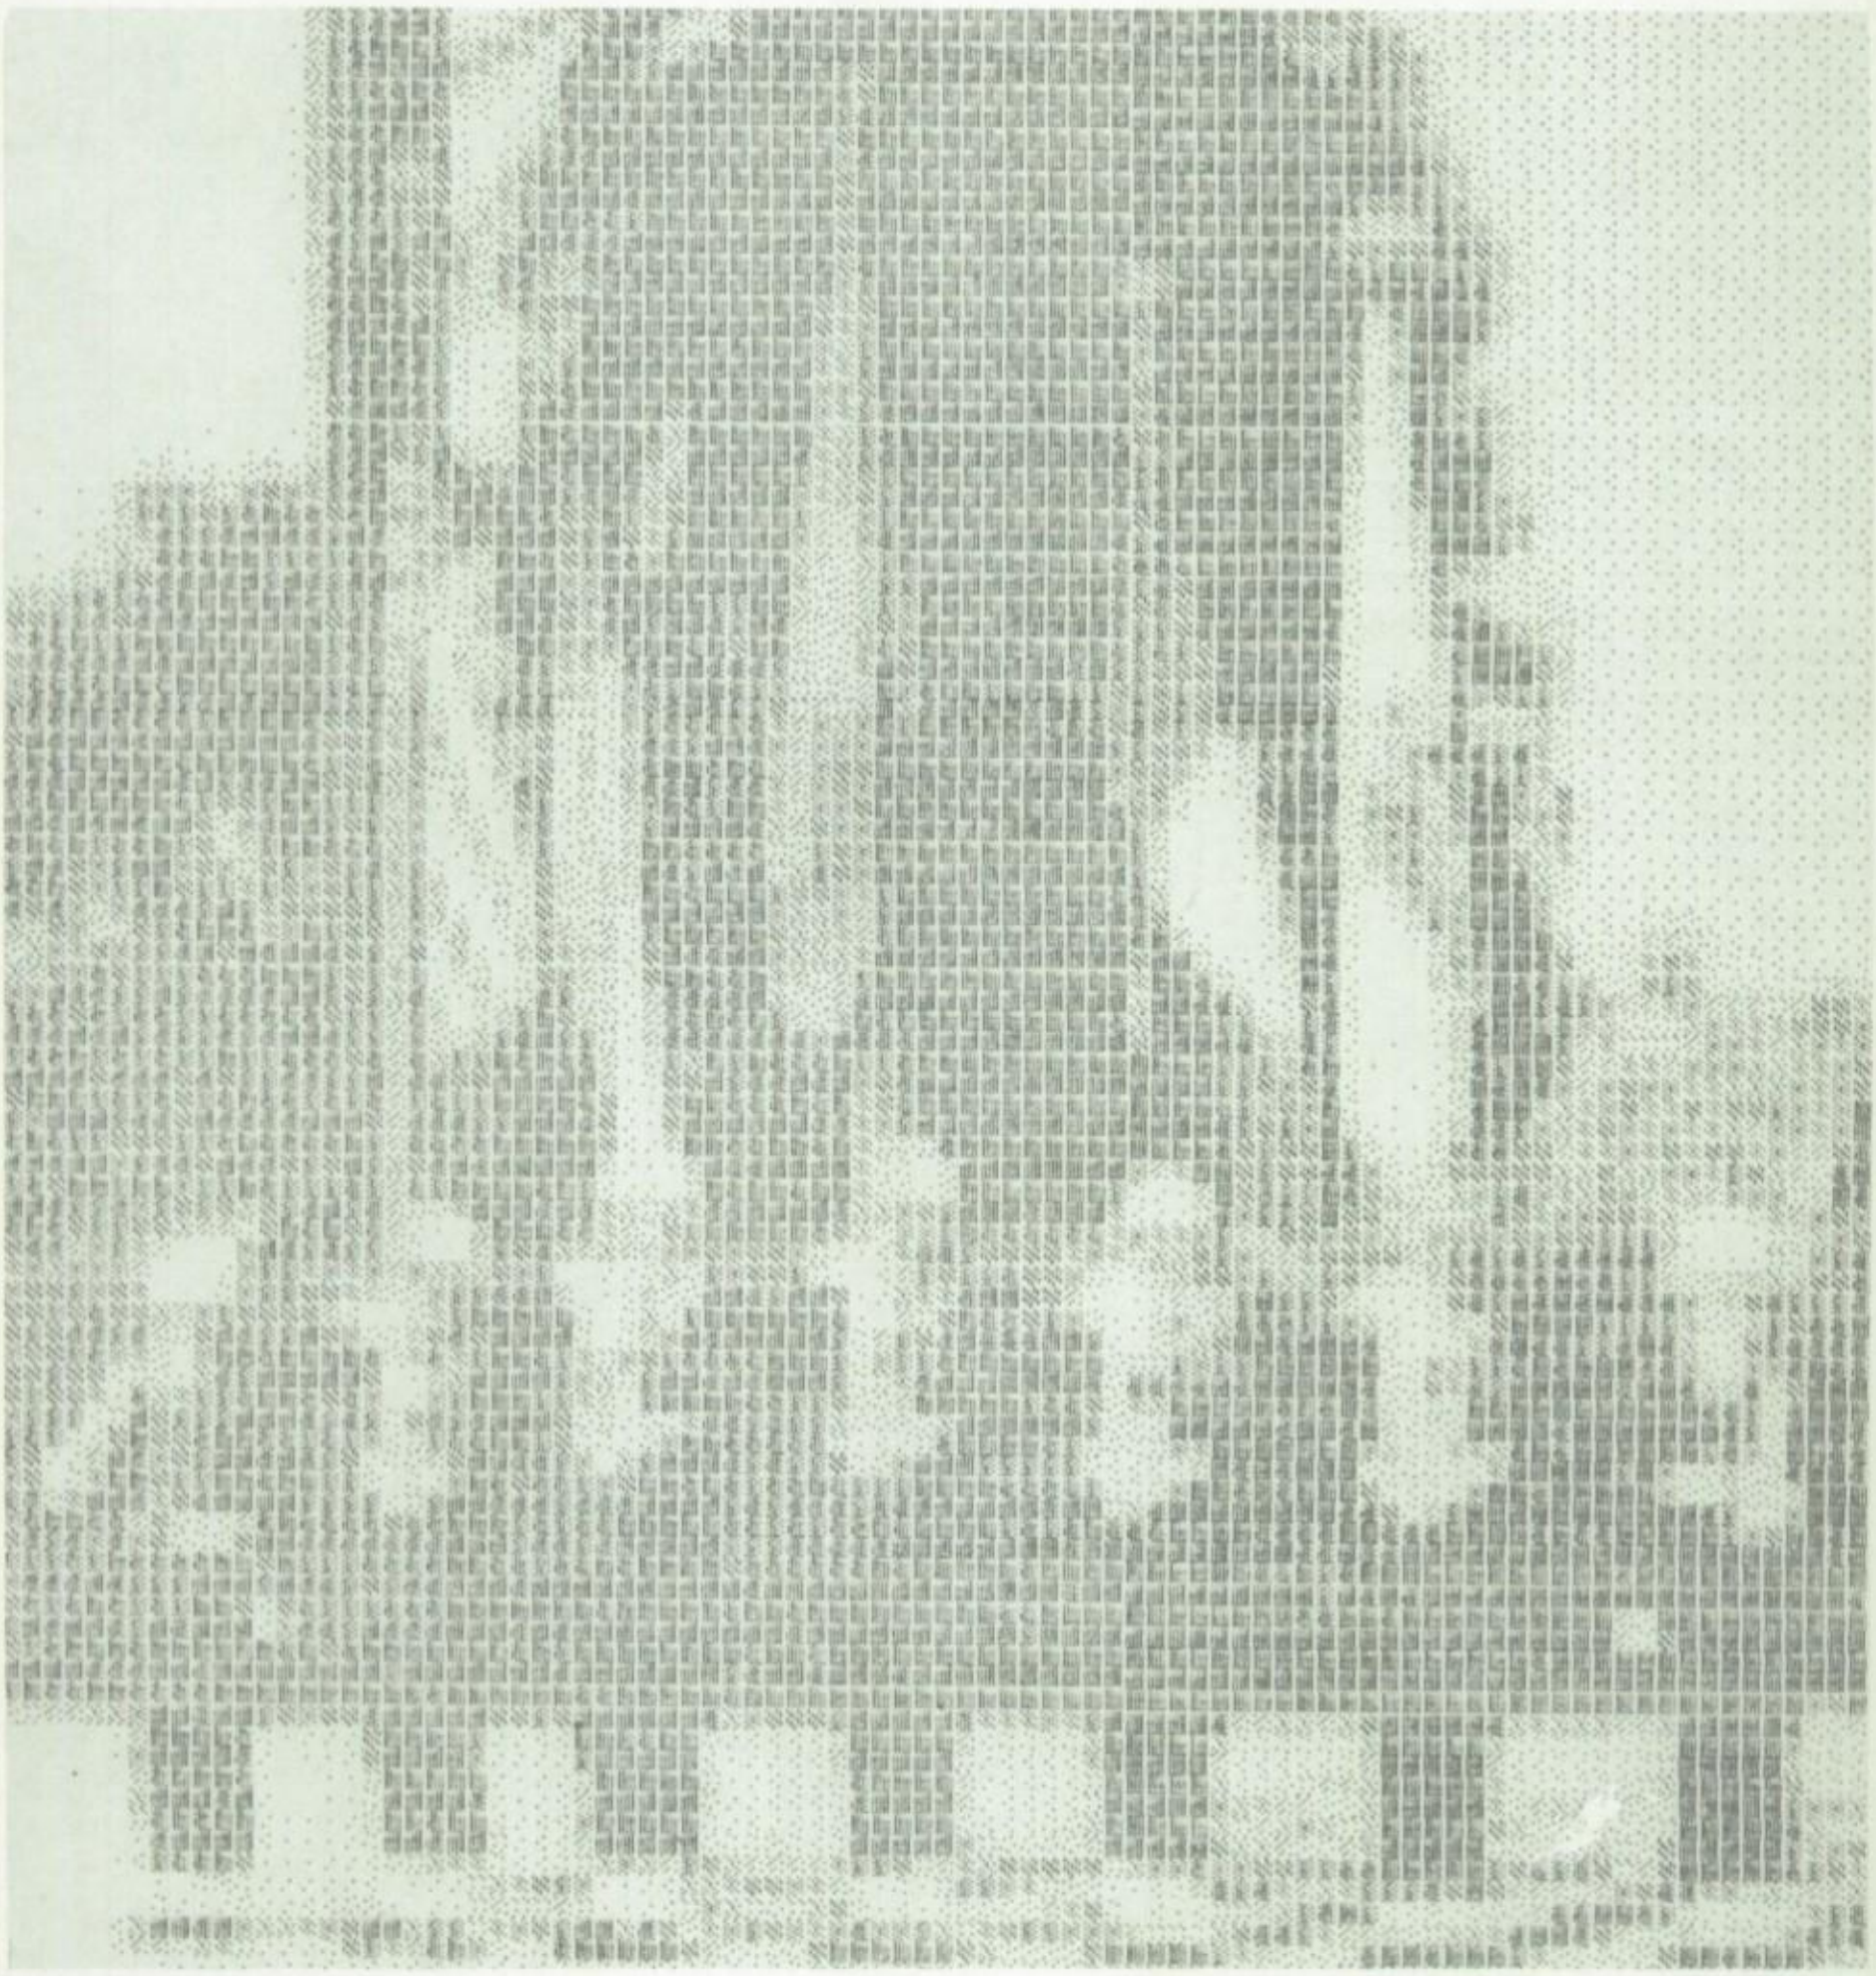
FORE



WORD

INTO THE FUTURE

I have always been fascinated at the plight of men and their machines. Wishing to extend our senses or abilities by building mechanical eyes, ears, or brains, we often discover, ironically, we have limited ourselves in other directions, and on occasion caused our own destruction. This does not mean we should give up machines at all; it only means we must be excited by the challenge of finding ways to build better machines that by their very shape and function induce us toward the ideal of humanity.

Ray Bradbury

As you, the Class of 1983, leave St. Catherine's, we hope that your memories of the past, as captured here, will guide you to the brightest of futures.

WELCOME

Rev. Msgr. John C. Keenan
Chaplain 1982-

A pastor in the truest sense of the word — a man concerned about people and willing to bring the care and healing of the Good Shepherd into their lives — Msgr. Keenan comes to us from St. Boniface and, besides his duties at St. Catherine's, is responsible for hospital ministry in Anaheim. Already the staff and cadets have felt the effects of his presence, and we hope he will have a long and fruitful stay in our midst.

FAREWELL

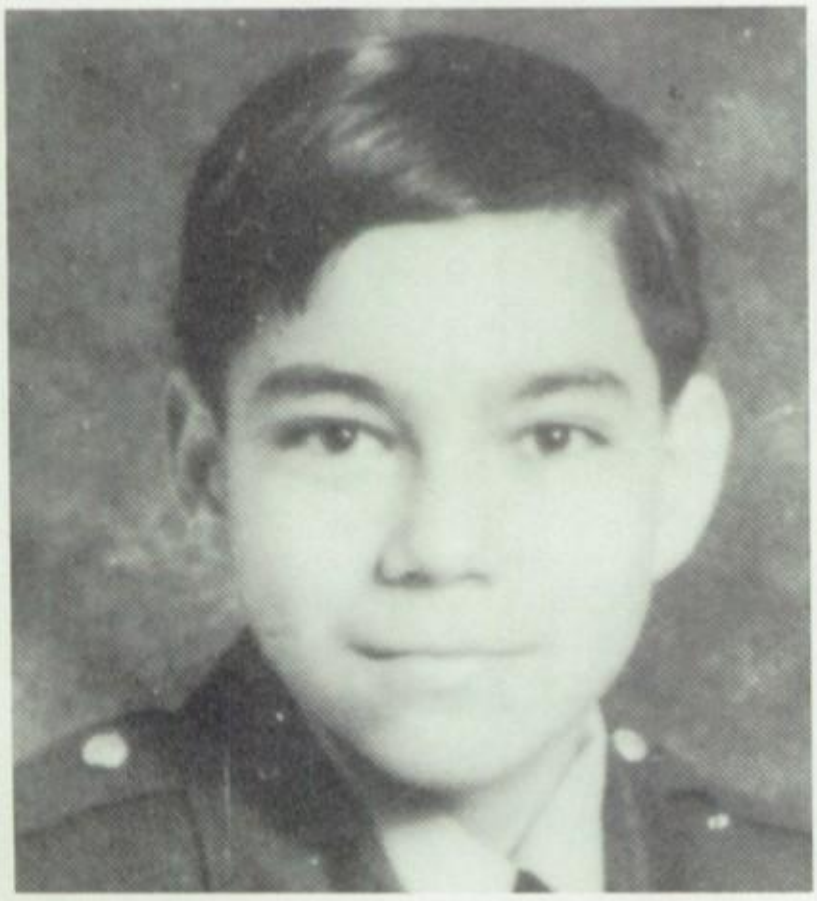
Rev. Msgr. Joseph M. Pekarcik
Chaplain 1978-1982

Rev. Msgr. Joseph Pekarcik — educator, army chaplain, minister to the sick — brought the qualities of all these experiences to bear on his personal encounters with the cadets. Though his commitments limited his contacts, he brought a quality to these that was deeply felt by all. The cadets of St. Catherine's bid farewell to a real friend and wish him God's continued blessings in his hospital ministry.

IN MEMORY

SISTER CONSILIA ROMICH, O.P.
May 27, 1899 — October 20, 1982

In January of 1926, Sister Consilia received her assignment to St. Catherine's. For the next fifty-six years, this "gentle woman" dedicated her life and her exceptional musical talent to her Lord, the community of St. Catherine's, and her beloved cadets to whom she taught the art and techniques of various band instruments. She could play anything and everything! We are grateful to God for the beauty within her that found expression in her music and touched the lives of so many generations of young men.



CADET LUIS JESUS DIAZ

April 26, 1964 — September 3, 1982

Luis Jesus Diaz from Tecoman, Colima, Mexico, attended St. Cathèrine's, from 1976 to 1977. He was a very attentive student who enjoyed school and making friends. His ambition was to become an architect, and his hobby was collecting miniature cars and jeeps. His accomplishments at St. Catherine's were many: he learned much English, became a Knight of the Altar, was a member of the band, and was on the soccer team. He enjoyed playing all sports, especially football and soccer.

Dear Parents, Cadets, and Friends,

It is with a sense of satisfaction and pride that we congratulate you our Graduates, the Class of 1983, and all of our Cadets. We rejoice with you in your accomplishments and pray that the future finds each one determined to achieve the maximum development of his God-given gifts and personhood. We wish you the best in life now and forever.

As we recapture through this yearbook many of the events of this past year, we wish to express sincere gratitude to our parents, faculty and staff who have made this a happy and enriching year for our Cadets. Now and in the future may your efforts be blessed through them -- the Cadets of St. Catherine's.

Our deep appreciation, we extend to our Parents' Guild for the never-ending support in time, talent, energy and money toward all of our endeavors. Special thanks to Mrs. Ana Ster and her Yearbook Committee for their direction and work on the production of another memorable and cherished annual.

On October 20 of this school year, after living and working at St. Catherine's since 1926, Sister Consilia Romich entered eternal life. We know that in her our Cadets and all of us related to St. Catherine's have another special intercessor before the Lord. This side of eternity you are remembered, too, daily in the prayers of your Dominican Sisters. The Lord bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours,

Sister Regina Marie, O.P.

He did it!

Don't shoot! I'll get back in line.

Bunny or Indian Chief?

Two for the price of one here.

Hey! There's some girls in bunny costumes.

It followed us home . . .

I sure love parties!

I am joining the Desert Troops.

I guess he's lost his marbles.

Don't eat it all; save some for us.

Don't follow her; she is lost.

The barber is waiting for him!

Did you stand me here on purpose?

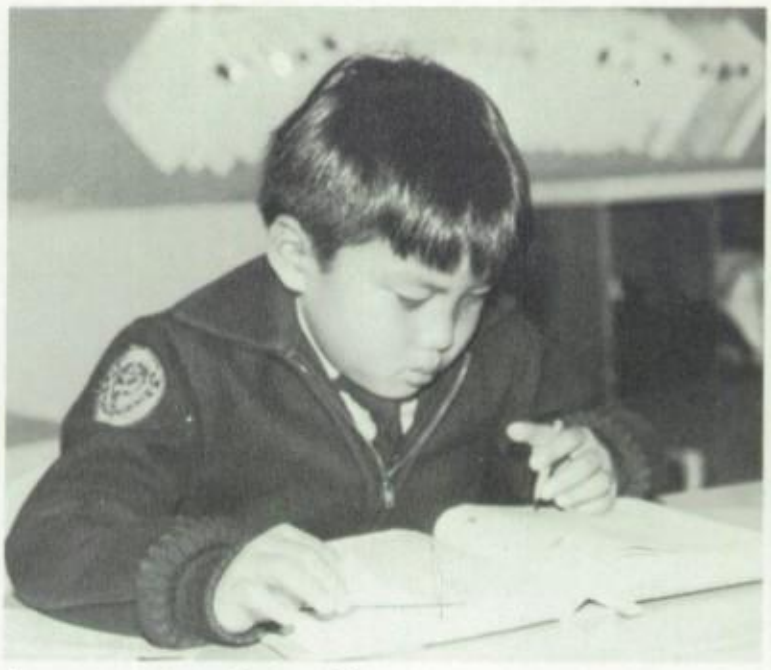
Don't go yet; I've got the parade route.

But I am standing at attention!

The long and short of it!

Oh, yes Sir! I am very sick!

Maybe I can take a short cut next lap.



I am not sure I get this . . .

Lunch was sure skimpy today.

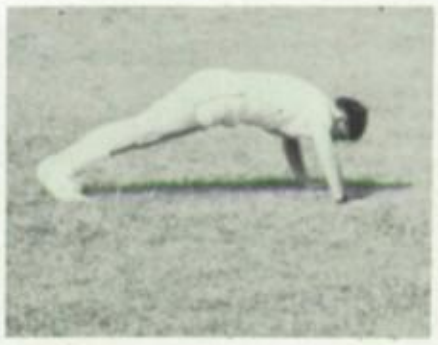
Parades make me thirsty.

How did you get ahead of me?

It tickles me!

But Sir, my shirt is buttoned — mostly.

Let me see that too!



This is for real!

Strike . . . here I come!

We realize leisure and playtime seem to have become a thing of the past, overwhelmingly replaced by books, studies and more books . . .

We realize our nagging is constant and the prompting may seem to be non-stop.

We realize that seldom does the homework and tutoring give way to a favorite Television program . . .

We realize you are working really hard and giving your most to come through for yourself and for us . . .

We also realize there are days you must feel we just simply wind you up and send you on your merry way . . .

But we do hope YOU realize, how VERY PROUD WE ARE OF YOU!

Tito, we can only say, It's worth it in the end!

2nd Grade

Dear Lance;

We know God knew us pretty well when he gave us you. You have shown us a very special kind of love. Your father and I can't imagine life without you. You have brought us so much happiness.

Happiness is . . . . . Having you for a son

Happiness is . . . . . Watching you grow

Happiness is . . . . . Hearing you laugh

Happiness is . . . . . Seeing your bouncy walk

Happiness is . . . . . Seeing you get an award

Happiness is . . . . . Knowing we can trust you

Happiness is . . . . . Hearing you say "I love you!"

PRAISE OF WISDOM

"All wisdom comes from the Lord and with him it remains forever. The sand of the seashore, the drops of rain, the days of eternity: who can number these? Before all things else wisdom was created; and prudent understanding, from eternity. To whom has wisdom's root been revealed? Who knows her subtleties? There is but one, wise and truly awe-inspiring, seated upon his throne: It is the Lord: he created her, has seen her and taken note of her. He has poured her forth upon all his works, upon every living thing according to his bounty; he has lavished her upon his friends."

Sirach 1:1-8

To our beloved Son,

LEE BARRY McCORMACK

We are very proud of your scholastic achievements and your record of excellence and we are profoundly grateful to the Lord for bestowing many blessing to us through you.

We love you very much

It is our prayer that as you continue to grow, you will always seek perfect wisdom and a close relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ, who loves you even more then we do.

The knowledge that we gain throughout life carries a responsibility with it. That responsibility is to share our knowledge with other people. All too often we do not remember that the knowledge we have may be very useful to others; that the knowledge we have may be the missing piece to afford someone else a happy life. The sharing of knowledge stimulates innovation, stimulates our self worth, and a better relationship between all people.

THE FUTURE IS WITHIN YOUR POWER!

Frequently, we deceive ourselves into thinking that we know what is right or that the knowledge that we have is all there is to know and therefore what we think must be the proper view. With this outlook, we present facts to others and expect them to think like us. It is a much wiser outlook to understand that we never know all that there is to know and be open to new information. We must also allow others to decide for themselves based on all the information that they have available to them not only on the information that we have presented to them.
